Footnotes:

- ^{1/} The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.
- ^{2/} Because January 31 and July 31, 2004, fall on a Saturday, these filing deadlines are extended to February 2 and August 2, 2004, respectively.
- ^{3/} Judges and elected officers whose salaries are less than $200 month are not required to file semi-annual statements if no contributions were received or expenditures made during the period.
- ^{4/} A controlled committee of a candidate may not make an independent expenditure to support or oppose another candidate.

Additional Notes:

- There is no provision in the law for an extension of a filing deadline. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.
- State candidates are subject to contribution limits.
